

Preserving your family history: The Frances Bibbins Latimer Collection

Friday, November 3, 2017
1:00 to 2:30 p.m.

Barrier Islands Center, 7295 Young Street, Machipongo, VA

During Mrs. Latimer's lifetime, she collected books, bibles, obituaries, newspaper articles, pictures, court documents and much more documenting the rich history of the Eastern Shore. These materials have been donated to the Eastern Shore Public Library and the collection is being categorized and digitized for full public access.

This will be your first chance to view pieces from the collection.

Come and learn how to start your own collection to tell your family's story.
The history in your home is more than you can imagine.

This event is free. For more information or to register, please call Karen Hatch at 757.350.5202 or Brenda Holden at 757.787.8590
