

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Cara Burton, (757) 787-3400

NONPROFIT FUNDRAISING WORKSHOPS SCHEDULED

(Accomac, Virginia) October 26, 2018 – The Eastern Shore Public Library is offering new training programs for area nonprofits to learn how to raise funds and manage assets. The first program, “Discover the Power of Endowments,” is Tuesday, October 30, at 12:00/noon at the Eastern Shore Chamber of Commerce. This free, one and a half program will be presented by Julie Badger, Executive Director of the Eastern Shore of Virginia Community Foundation. Registration is not required and open to all volunteers, staff, and board members of local nonprofit organizations, including churches and clubs.

Free, live webinars by the Foundation Center will take place in November and December. “Meet the Funders: Capital Funding” will take place Tuesday, November 1st. “Rebooting Your Board Culture” will air Thursday, November 8. “10 Strategies for Success with Digital Fundraising” will be presented Thursday, November 29. “Introduction to Corporate Giving” will take place Wednesday, December 5. For details about time and location, please contact Cara Burton, Library Director, at cburton@espl.org or call (757) 787-3400. Help your organization become more sustainable and achieve its goals by attending these programs!

end #