Jamestown archaeology in Accomac

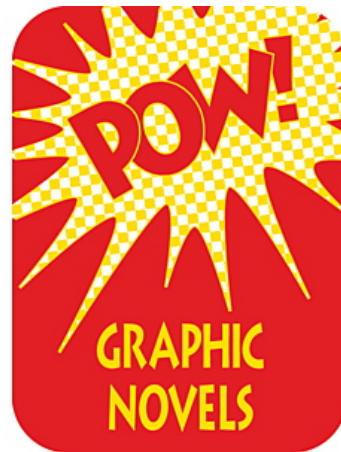

The Eastern Shore Public Library will host an educational exhibit, “Uncovering Home: A Visual Essay on Jamestown Archaeology,” from April 19th to June 27th. The exhibit is on loan from the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts in Richmond.

What’s new on Jamestown Island? Archaeologists from the Jamestown Rediscovery project at Historic Jamestowne are uncovering James Fort’s oldest artifacts, and creating a revised picture of life in the first permanent English settlement in America!

New graphic novels!

Thanks to a generous donation from Pam Holley, the library was able to purchase 150 new children's, young adult, and adult graphic novels! And we gave them special shelving locations to make browsing easy and fun. Come check them out at the library in Accomac!
